

Glenroy Experience & Explore

---

Taster

Duration: 3 days

Thursday

Collection from airport or other assembly point. Unpack, unwind and settle in. Enjoy a sunset braai overlooking Wagendrift Dam.

Friday

A chance to find out more about the local history. From Shaka and Dingane, to the Anglo-Zulu and Anglo-Boer wars, including famous battles like Majuba, Spionkop, Colenso, Willowgrange and the capture of Churchill at Chieveley, Glenroy is close to where it all happened. Go on a Battlefields tour with Ron Gold. End with a traditional Zulu meal prepared by local Sangoma Phumelela Sithole.

Saturday

Health breakfast, then on to Giant's Castle World Heritage site for spectacular scenery and a chance to view the rare lammergaiers. A sandstone cave provides one of the biggest and best preserved examples of rock art in the Southern Hemisphere.

Sunday

Early morning game viewing and breakfast in Weenen Game Reserve. Look out for the rare black rhino, or any of the other numerous species. Back to the Guesthouse to pack.

All tours are based at Glenroy Guest House, a charming old home with wide verandahs along its length, a peaked thatched roof and metre thick "pise de terre" walls. Inside, the house has a guest lounge, with wood fires in winter. It is set in an idyllic garden overlooking Wagendrift Dam. The open lawns, well established gardens, abundant birdlife and transcendent views instil in one an incredible sense of peace.

Activities are optional. Catch your breath by spending a quiet day at the Guest House.

Meals eaten at home are prepared in the Glenroy Kitchens. Glenroy is committed to sourcing as much as possible from local producers with much of the fresh produce coming from the Guest House gardens which are tended using principles of permaculture. These ethics and techniques are aimed toward maximum sustainability. No synthetic fertilizers or sprays are used, and the indigenous chickens provide hormone and antibiotic free eggs. Home made marmalade, lemon curd, muesli, homemade rusks, pickles, relish and cheese fill the Guesthouse pantry. Food is most certainly a celebration and is treated accordingly; you won't be disappointed on this front!
